

LADY BARDS
on the BARGE
Presents...

PT. ONE - 15th
PT. TWO - 16th

AUGUST

IL BORDELLO

www.ladyfestbristol.org

© ILLUSTRATION BY MARY STEVENS

LADYFEST BRISTOL 2003 presents:
(www.ladyfestbristol.org)

LADYBARDS on the BARGE

A MULTI ART POETIC EXTRAVAGANZA...

FEATURING:

International & National Poets

FRIDAY:

Nikki Bennett Willetts*: A marvelous mix of middle-age, menopause, muses and memories.

Helen Gregory*: A common poet for the people... and a bit mixed up.

Bonny Brooks*: native Bristolian, back in town who researches, writes & performs on issues of importance for women

Andi Langford - Woods*: "Tall, lean, non-scene 3rd gender spirit working in music & performance"

Samantha Taylor & Tania van Schaikwyk*: 'COURTESAN'.

poetic photographic exhibition & multimedia set inspired by Veronica Franco the 16th century poet-courtisan

Jennifer Cendana Armas: writer, actor, dancer, teacher from the NYC: One sista de-exotifying herself and her new york city barrie

Special Guest: Jazz Vocalist Joan Davis

"Sometimes known as the 'Ira of Jazz', she's a big figure on the national scene. Having worked at Renée Scott's and with Bobby McFerrin among others), but locally she's very much seen as one of our greatest musical assets. Her vocal and emotional range is awesome, moving from gut-busting soul to heart-breaking blues with ease." -- Yvonne Magarine

www.joandavis.com (Sponsored by ROOTS)

SATURDAY:

Susan Richardson: "Big writing from intelligent UK-based poet. has confidence and power, as well as delicate metaphorical beauty. The Scribzone

Crysse Morrison*: "With echoes of Helen Dunmore, Morrison's debut proves her a superb storyteller." The Times

Arlene McGinnis*: Active writer on the scene.

Penitents in Fishnets - Hazel Stewart & Jill Miller* : put fun back into feminism
Heather Taylor*: "Disturbing... Taylor has the ability to reach deep and connect with the audience." - A.H.Hakte, The Peak www.heathertaylor.co.uk

Catherine Kidd* : Montreal writer / performer who tells rhyming animal-stories with funky soundscapes by Jack Beets
"Kidd's voice is the best cause for spoken word I've heard yet... Huge talent! - Terminal City, Vancouver

&

Interactive Multimedia Acoustic Debag Human' set by Gaynor & Flynn

"Gaynor's live set takes you on a journey from urbanity back to nature as world vibes fuse with dub beats; lazy lyrics sit on laid-back grooves embracing that cathartic, conscious voice". BBC's website www.raynorofyawl.com

A SUBVERSIFER CHILL ZONE

- poesy & performance interspersed with chilled sounds-

©

Il Bordello's Art Barge (Welsh Back, Bristol BS1)

www.ilbordello.co.uk

PART 1: Friday the 15th of August : 8 til Late

PART 2: Saturday the 16th of August : 8 til Late

Entrance: 5 on the door / 4 (concessions) / free with Ladyfest wristbands

FFI: contact tvs@uskonet.com or visit website www.ladyfestbristol.org (Click on Spoken Word)

LADYFEST BRISTOL

11th - 17th Aug

www.ladyfestbristol.org

music

Holly Golightly, Mooz, The Gossip,
Rita Lynch, The Applicators,
Hawney Troof (bratmobile, XRXBX)

Joan Davis | Scout Niblett,
and many more!

seminars

workshops

spoken word

Gaynor O'Flynn

Annie McGann

sex work . activism
gender politics
health

films

female comic art

Fawn! Gehweiler!

Trina Robbins,

Ellen Forney!

Julie Doucet!

more!! Alison Bechdel

Tickets available now through Ladyfest

Bristol or Bristol Ticket Shop

www.bristolticketshop.com

0117 973 5267