Wiedzma & Sistertosister (Poland)	Abortion struggle in Poland. From early '90 till now	In 1993 significant changes concerning women's reproductive rights were introduced in Poland. The Polish Parliament introduced the anti-abortion law called the Act on family planning, human embryo protection and conditions of permissibility of abortion according to which abortions on social grounds were delegalized, and women in difficult life conditions, including financial situation, could not legally have abortions. This dramatic change affected seriously many women and families, particularly those poor and uneducated ones. The law did not stop abortions. It pushed women to use back-street abortions or travel abroad.	www.wiedzma.most.org.pl	P	13,30-15

Siri Hedenstrom & Liza Lindgren projection	Det find pa Liebigstrasse 34	Documentary about autonomous women living project in Berlin		P	10,30-11
discussion	Autonomous woman's spaces	During preparations for this festival most frequent question people asked us was: " Can I bring my (male) friend? " It opened a problem of being closed/opened group to guys. We all have different reasons (and experiences) for being opened/closed, and we want to share it and discuss it here and now.		P	11-13
discussion	Directions and future of a-fem movement	For the end of this festival, we want to see can we bring some conclusions – what we, as anarcha-feminists, have in common, and in which ways we distinguish. Can we talk about some directions of a-feminst movement (if yes, which one?), how can we connect better and what do we think about future of this idea/movement...		P	13-15
LUNCH		The best food ever!!		Zelena akcija	15-16
Andrea projection	Uwaga Warszawa	Documentary about the famous festival in Poland, Walpurgis night (2006.)		P	16-16,30
Milla (Finland)	Feminist self defense	Feminist self defense was created in the United States in the 70's, when women got together and starting sharing experiences of rape and other structural male violence that women face in our society. Femdefense aim is to raise consciousness amongst women of the reoccurring mental, verbal and physical assaults of everyday life and how to deal with it.	http://home.swipnet.se/vingen/ArtemisSystrar/frames.htm	P	16,45-20
